

Pfc Masami Inatsu
August 15, 1915 - April 13, 1945

Pfc Masami Inatsu

Born August 15, 1915 in Bellevue, Washington to Yoshio and Kayoko Inatsu. Brother of Nobuko, Toshiko, Tomoko and Tsugio. Masami attended elementary and high schools in Bellevue. He was employed in a produce packing house in Bellevue. Masami was with Co. B, 100th Inf. Batt., 442nd RCT and was killed in action on April 13, 1945 in Italy. Inatsu received the Combat Infantryman's Badge, Bronze Star, Purple Heart, Victory Medal, American Theatre Medal, and European-African-Middle Eastern Theatre Medal. He is buried at the Washelli Cemetery in Seattle, Washington.