

OBJECTS AND PURPOSES OF CLUB 100

The objects and purposes of the CLUB 100 as listed in our Charter of Incorporation are:

1. To continue and perpetuate the identity of the 100th Infantry Battalion (Separate) and its successor in combat action, the 100th Battalion of the 442nd Infantry Regiment;
2. To preserve and uphold the high traditions of such combat units and to develop and maintain appropriate records of their heroic achievements;
3. To encourage and assist its regular members in a steadfast endeavor (1) to promote unity among all of the people of their respective communities, (2) to advance the social welfare of all people throughout the Territory of Hawaii, (3) to participate in and support activities designed to build and strengthen patriotism and loyalty to the United States of America, and (4) generally to do all lawful things that reasonably may assure that the sacrifices made in combat by the regular members of this corporation and by their comrades who died on the field of battle in the cause of liberty and justice shall not have been made in vain;
4. To promote mutual assistance among its regular members and their families; to assist its regular members and the families of their deceased comrades in obtaining those rights and benefits to which they are or may become entitled under the provisions of laws now existing or hereafter to be enacted; and to extend to its regular members and the families of their deceased comrades such other assistance, material or otherwise, as in each case may be deemed necessary or appropriate to the extent that it is feasible for the corporation to do so;
5. To provide means for social relationship and recreation among its regular members and their families and friends.
